

Therapeutic Guide

4th edition

Table of contents

1	Defining, diagnosing and monitoring hypertension	(9)
2	Therapeutic goals in hypertension	(19)
3	Office blood pressure measurement	(28)
4	Home blood pressure measurement	(43)
5	Ambulatory blood pressure monitoring	(51)
6	Investigation of the hypertensive patient	(65)
7	Cardiovascular risk assesment	(70)
8	Adherence with medical recommendations	(102)
9	Non pharmacological treatment of hypertension	(121)

- | | | | |
|-----------|--|-------|--|
| 10 | Hypertension and exercise | (140) | |
| 11 | Initial pharmacological treatment of uncomplicated hypertension or hypertension with concomitant condition | (157) | |
| 12 | Polytherapy for hypertension | (171) | |
| 13 | Treatment of refractory hypertension | (201) | |
| 14 | Severe hypertension and hypertensive emergencies | (210) | |
| 15 | Hypertension and diabetes | (234) | |
| 16 | Hypertension and dyslipoproteinemia | (251) | |
| 17 | Hypertension, heart rate and arrhythmias | (263) | |
| 18 | Hypertension and heart disease | (271) | |
| 19 | Hypertension and non-diabetic chronic kidney disease | (281) | |
| 20 | Hypertension and the brain | (289) | |

21	Hypertension and orthostatic hypotension	(300)
22	Hypertension in the elderly and very elderly	(310)
23	Hypertension and pregnancy	(328)
24	Hypertension in children	(355)
25	Hypertension and sexuality	(378)
26	Drug interactions and hypertension	(385)
27	Hypertension and natural health products	(394)
28	An interdisciplinary approach to managing hypertensive patients	(405)
	Appendix	(411)

